4. Principles for determining materiality of events/information

- 4.1 The Policy applies only to Material events/information specified under Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Regulations.
- 4.2 All events/information stated in Para A of Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Regulations (including any modification or re-enactment thereto) are deemed to be material.
- 4.3 In respect of events/information stated in Para B of Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Regulations (as listed in Annexure I to the Policy), the Authorised Officer shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of events/information:
- a. Where criteria specified in the SEBI Regulations are not applicable, an event/information would be considered material if the impact or likely impact of the event/information on the Company meets or exceeds the quantitative threshold as mentioned below. While determining materiality, the quantitative thresholds set out below shall be applied to each event/information severally.
 - i. Events/information listed in point nos. 1 to 9 and 11 to 12 of Annexure I to the Policy, shall be considered material if the impact of the said event/information is likely to exceed 5% of the Consolidated Turnover of the Company.
 - ii. Events/information listed in point nos. 10 & 13 of Annexure I to the Policy, shall be considered material if the following threshold are breached:
 - a. In case of options to purchase securities including any ESOP/ESPS Scheme - If the number of options is 1% or more of the total issued and paid-up equity shares of the Company as on the date of the issuance of options.
 - b. Capacity Addition (in relation to the capacity expansion plan of a given manufacturing unit) - If its impact would exceed 10% of the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company.
- 4.4 In respect of events/information stated in Para C of Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Regulations viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of specified securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities, the Authorised Officer shall determine the materiality of such events / information and shall disclose the same to the Stock Exchanges.
- 4.5 For events/information with respect to any Subsidiary of the Company, an event/information would be considered material if the impact of the event/ information would exceed 5% of the Consolidated Turnover of the Company.
- 4.6 The Authorised Officer shall disclose the event/information determined as material pursuant to clauses 4.2 to 4.5 above in such manner and within such time as specified under Clause 5 and Clause 6 of the Policy respectively.

5. Persons Responsible for Disclosure & Process of Disclosure of Events/ Information:

- 5.1 The MD, CEO or CFO or the Company Secretary & Compliance Officer in consultation with the MD, CEO or CFO (hereinafter severally referred to as "Authorised Officer"), shall be responsible to determine the materiality of an event/information for the purpose of the Policy and disclose the same to the Stock Exchanges.
- 5.2 The details to be provided while disclosing a Material event/information shall be based on the guidance/principle laid down under the SEBI Regulations.

- 5.3 The Authorised Officer shall, with respect to the disclosures made under the Policy, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations.
- 5.4 The Authorised Officer shall also disclose on the website of the Company all such events/information which have been disclosed to Stock Exchanges under the Policy, and such disclosures shall be hosted on the website for a period of five years and thereafter as per the Policy of the Company on preservation of documents.
